

Guidelines for Issuing Provisional Marks to Students assessment.

- 4. Provisional Marks for components of the Board of Studies
- 5. Departments may use major discrete projects/dissertations for academic year arrangements
- 6. Marks must be issued ideally after the completion of internal marking. In exceptional cases, an exception to this rule may be investigated and approved. In this case, the marks must be investigated and approved by the investigating body before the marks are released before the final marks that the early marks have been scheduled for.
